Subject: STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION - Chapter VIII SCHOOL DISRUPTIONS & CIVIL DISTURBANCE

SECTION 1. PRESIDENT MAY WITHDRAW CONSENT TO REMAIN ON CAMPUS

The president of the university may withdraw consent of any person to remain on the campus on the basis of reasonable cause to believe that such person, (1) has wilfully disrupted the orderly operation of the campus; or (2) is committing an act likely to interfere with the peaceful conduct of the activities of the campus or has entered the campus for the purpose of committing any such act, by proper notification as provided for in Chapter 196 [1973] Laws of Utah.

SECTION 2. REINSTATEMENT OF CONSENT

The president shall reinstate consent if there is reasonable cause to believe that the presence of the person from whom consent was withdrawn will not constitute a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the campus, within fourteen days from the date when consent was withdrawn.

SECTION 3. AUTHORITY TO REQUEST STATE OR LOCAL LAW ASSISTANCE

In the discretion of the president or the president's representative, where the security and police department of the university lacks sufficient personnel to deal effectively with unrest existing or developing on the campus, the president may request assistance from state and local law enforcement authorities, who shall serve in cooperation with the president or the representative of the president.

SECTION 4. ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY OF PRESIDENT AND PROCEDURES

Additional authority and procedures including penalties and punishments are enumerated in Chapter 196 [1973] Laws of Utah, as codified in Utah Code Ann. 76-8-701 through 718.
