

Regulations Library

The University of Utah

Policy: 2-101 Rev: 1
Date: August 24, 1982

Policy 2-101: State System of Higher Education – The University and the State

I. Purpose of the University

The University of Utah is an institution of higher learning organized under the constitution and laws of the state of Utah as a body corporate and politic, controlled and supported by the people of the state, and dedicated primarily to disseminating and assimilating knowledge in advanced fields of study and higher learning, research, and intellectual service to the state and nation. [(Utah Constitution, Article X, Section 4; Utah Code 1953, 53-31-1, 2, 3. See also entire Chapter 31 of Title 53, Utah Code 1953.)] (Act of Feb. 28, 1850; Utah Const. Art. X, 4; Utah Code Ann. 53-31-1 et seq. (1970).)

II. Contacts:

Policy Officer:

Acting as the Policy Officer, the Secretary to the University is responsible for representing the University's interests in enforcing this policy and authorizing any allowable exceptions.

Policy Owner:

Acting as the Policy Owner, the Secretary to the University is responsible for answering questions and providing information regarding the application of this policy.