III. Policy - Requirements for Graduation With a Bachelor of University Studies Degree

The Bachelor of University Studies program, administered by the University Studies Committee, permits a student in consultation with a faculty adviser to plan an individualized program of study not offered as a major in any academic department. The general requirements for graduation, as described in Policy 6-101 \(/academics/6-101.php\), apply to the B.U.S. degree, with one exception: a minimum of 56 upper division hours is required. Specific requirements for the B.U.S. degree are set forth in the university catalog.
