These ex officio members shall have full rights of discussion and making motions but not the right to vote. (2) Each dean, or an associate or assistant dean designated as a dean's representative. Each dean or a dean's designee shall have full rights of discussion and making motions on matters directly associated with the dean's college or administrative responsibility, but, except for the two voting deans [see III-

- b. Academic Advisors. One representative of an organization of the University's professional academic advisors, selected annually by the organization, shall be an ex officio member of the Senate, with full rights of discussion and making motions on matters directly associated with the responsibilities of academic advisors, but not the right to vote.

All Tenure-line members of the faculty, without regard for rank or for time in rank, shall be eligible for election to membership in the Senate, except ex officio members of the Senate and members of the faculty serving in administrative positions higher than department chair. All Tenure- line members of the faculty, without regard for rank or for time in rank, shall be eligible to vote for candidates for Senate membership only in the areas of representation where they hold

- B. Tenure-line faculty membership in the Senate shall be apportioned by allocating not more than 79 representatives among the eighteen areas of representation (seventeen academic colleges and the University libraries area*) on a prorated basis of 50 percent according to the number of Tenure-line faculty members in each area and 50 percent according to student credit hours, including evening residence hours, taught in each area during the preceding academic year (regardless of whether taught by faculty, of any faculty category, or by non-faculty instructional personnel). The base allocation of not more than 79 Tenure-line faculty members shall be adjusted to ensure that each area of representation will have a minimum of two representatives. The Senate Personnel and Elections Committee shall reapportion the Senate according to the foregoing formula every two years.

*Representation from the Tenure-line faculty of the University Libraries will be determined by taking the average number of student credit hours taught within the academic colleges during the preceding academic year (regardless of by whom taught), per Tenure-line faculty member, of all other colleges, and multiplying that value by the number of Library Tenure-line faculty.

- C. Areas of representation which, under the foregoing formula, would contribute more than 20 percent of the voting Tenure-line faculty membership of the Senate may, with Senate approval, be subdivided by the Senate Personnel and Elections Committee along department or administrative lines, into two or more separate representation areas, none of which shall contribute more than 20 percent of the voting Tenure-line faculty membership of the Senate. The membership of such subdivided representation areas shall be apportioned by the Committee among the areas as nearly as possible in accordance with the above prorationing formula.

ii. Career-line faculty members.

- A. The voting membership of the Senate shall include Career-line faculty members as defined in Policy 6-300.

- C. All members of the faculty who, continuously for the three years preceding the date their term of Senate membership would begin, have had Career-line faculty appointments of at least 75 percent Full-Time-Equivalent (.75 FTE) within a single area of representation, without regard for rank and without regard for category within the Career-line categories (Clinical, Lecturer, or Research), shall be eligible for election to membership in the Senate from the areas of representation where they hold such .75 FTE appointments, except ex officio members of the Senate and members of the faculty serving in administrative positions higher than department chair.

- D. All members of the faculty who at the time of the election hold Career-line faculty appointments of at least 50 percent Full-Time-Equivalent (.5 FTE) within a single area of representation, without regard for rank or for time in rank, and without regard for category within the Career-line categories (Clinical, Lecturer, or Research), shall be eligible to vote for Career-line candidates for Senate membership in the areas of representation where they hold such .5 FTE appointments.

iii. General provisions for both Tenure-line and Career-line elected faculty members.

- A. Faculty representatives shall be elected to serve regular three-year terms (or as provided in the subsection below regarding vacancies to complete three-year terms of representatives who do not complete their regular terms). Senate faculty members shall be ineligible for nomination for another term until at least one year has elapsed following the expiration of their terms of office or date of resignation therefrom. New terms shall begin on May 15.

The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here. [User note: prior to 2018 the functions of this committee were divided among three separate committees, including SACAP itself, the Senate Advisory Committee on Library Policy, and the Senate Advisory Committee on Salaries and Benefits. In 2018 the three committees and three sets of responsibilities were consolidated into this single SACAP committee. Also prior to 2014 this committee was known as the Academic Policy Advisory Committee--APAC.]

i. Membership and officers.

The membership of the Academic Policy Advisory Committee with full voting rights consists of nine Tenure-line or Career-line faculty members and three students. As with Senate standing committees generally, the terms of voting faculty members are three years and staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, the Senate President or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member, and elections of faculty members and appointment and confirmation of Committee officers proceed as described in [Parts III-D-

The Committee is authorized to consider any matter relating to academic policy, broadly defined, including matters relating to academic activities of teaching and research, the University Libraries (formerly a function of the Senate Advisory Committee on Libraries), and salaries and benefits of faculty and other academic personnel (formerly a function of the Senate Advisory Committee on Salaries and Benefits). It may consider any relevant matter which may be suggested by members of the Committee, members of the faculty, administrative officers, or students. The Senate Executive Committee, or the Senate, may refer to this Committee any question or consideration of any proposal regarding academic policy which is not otherwise assigned to another committee of the Senate, or which may be benefit from study by this Committee as well as another committee. Upon its selection of a subject for study, the Committee shall notify all interested agencies within the University, including standing committees, and invite their cooperation. At least once each academic year, the Committee shall submit a written report of its studies and recommendations, if any, to the Senate.

g. Senate Advisory Committee on University Strategic Planning.

The Senate Advisory Committee on University Strategic Planning

("SACUSP") is hereby established as a standing committee of the Academic Senate. The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here. [User note: prior to 2020 this committee was known as the Senate Advisory Committee on Budget and Planning—SACBP, and earlier as the Faculty Budget and Planning Advisory Committee--FBPAC.]

i. Membership and officers.

The membership of the Committee with full voting rights consists of 12 Tenure-line or Career-line faculty members, with a majority of Tenured faculty, who shall represent the University faculty as a whole and not any particular academic college or area. The membership slate will be voted on by the Senate, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, which should assure in the recommendation process that the large colleges or areas will have adequate representation, and that ordinarily there is no more than one member from the same college or area. The terms of voting members are four years (rather than the typical three), as with Senate standing committees generally, the terms are staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, and members may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms and then shall be ineligible for nomination for another term until at least one year has elapsed following the expiration of their terms of office. The immediate Past Senate President (or other Senate Presidential Officer as designee in case of absence) will be the Chair of the

The President of the University and the two Senior Vice Presidents (or their designees) will be non-voting ex-officio members of the Committee and serve as liaisons between the administration's strategic planning activities and the Committee, assuring that all strategic initiatives proposed by the administration receive adequate input from the Committee. The administration should inform the Committee of important strategic planning issues each year on a schedule that allows for such adequate Committee input.

ii. Functions.

The Senate Advisory Committee on University Strategic Planning may establish its own internal rules which shall provide that individual faculty members are entitled to submit information to the Committee and that Committee members will hold in strict confidence all budget and planning information which the Committee receives on a confidential basis from the University President or other administrative officers of the University.

The Committee should respond to directions from the Senate, while retaining the freedom to set its own agenda. The Committee's principal roles are to (1) consult with the University administration, and present and argue for the views and interests of the whole faculty in the administration's long-range academic and budgetary planning and (2) identify and bring to the attention of the Academic Senate various long-range, strategic issues, decisions and challenges that should be addressed in furthering the University's missions and positioning the University to be responsive to the demands of a changing and competitive environment. The goal of the Committee is to assure that academic interests such as academic freedom, academic excellence and principles of shared governance are considered when developing the long term strategic directions of the University. The Committee should strive to persuade the administration to make critical long term budgetary and academic policy decisions in as open and public a way as possible.

Specific Powers and Duties:

- Provide a forum for individual faculty members to submit information on long term strategic budget and planning.
- Represent views and interests of all faculty in matters related to long term strategic planning for the Institution.
- Consult with the University administration on developing a transparent process for long term strategic planning.
- Provide the University administration with input to all strategic planning initiatives that the administration should refer to the Committee for review.
- Identify and bring to the attention of the Academic Senate various long-range, strategic issues, decisions and challenges that should be addressed in furthering the University's missions and positioning the University to be responsive to the demands of a changing and competitive environment.

- The Committee shall perform the functions assigned to it by applicable provisions of Policy 6-313 (Terminations and Program Discontinuance—Declaration of Financial Exigency).

h. Senate Advisory Committee on Diversity.

The Senate Advisory Committee on Diversity ("SACD") is hereby established as a standing committee of the Academic Senate. The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here. [User note: this committee was formerly known as the University Diversity Committee—UDC (1998-2014, became a Senate-elected Senate standing committee in 2003), and earlier known as the Faculty Affirmative Action Committee—FAAC (pre-1998).]

i. Membership and officers.

The membership of the Committee with full voting rights consists of eighteen persons. Twelve shall be faculty members (six Tenure-line and six Career-line). Three shall be staff members serving three year terms (approved by the Senate Executive Committee after nomination by the University of Utah Staff Council-UUSC---see Policy 5-003).

Three shall be students serving one year terms (selected by ASUU).

As with Senate standing committees generally, the terms of voting faculty members are three years and staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, the Senate President or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member, and elections of faculty members and appointment and confirmation of Committee officers proceed as described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E], except that terms of all members shall begin August 1 (rather than June 16). Holders of the following positions (or equivalents) shall also be ex officio non-voting members: Academic Senate Past-president, Associate VP for Equity and Diversity, Associate VP for Diversity for Health Sciences, UUSC Chairperson, ASUU President, Director of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, Director of LGBT Resource Center, Assistant VP for Human Resources, and two representatives from the community. To ensure regular cross-communication between the Committee and the University's Presidential Commission on the Status of Women, the Commission shall be invited to annually designate one of its members to serve as a non-voting ex officio member of the Committee representing the Commission (unless the Commission determines that adequate representation is already provided by a current voting or ex officio member of the Committee).

ii. Functions.

The Committee shall provide leadership and expertise to the University community in promoting diversity in their various roles and activities and; serves as a forum for the exchange of ideas within the University. The Committee should respond to directions from the Academic Senate, while retaining the freedom to set its own agenda. The Committee's principal role is to identify issues, projects, and proposals that would further a positive climate of diversity on the University campus, would enhance relations with diverse elements in the community, and would promote appreciation of diversity in the wider community. The Committee's role includes forwarding information and recommendations to the Academic Senate. The Committee will submit an annual report to the Academic Senate of its activities.

iii. Budget.

An annual budget for the Committee will be offered by the President and administered by the Office of the Associate Vice President for Equity and Diversity.

i. Senate Advisory Committee on Student Course Feedback (SACSCF).

The Senate Advisory Committee on Student Course Feedback is hereby established as a standing committee of the Academic Senate. The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here. [User note: this committee was formerly known as the Student Course Feedback Oversight Committee (2011-2015), which was established by Policy 6-100-III-N. It was reorganized and made a standing committee of the Senate in 2015.]

i. Membership and officers.

The membership of the Committee with full voting rights consists of seven faculty members, and four students.

Faculty members. The faculty members are a mix of elected and appointed. There shall be four elected faculty members with terms of three years and limited to two consecutive terms. In accordance with Policy 6-300- III-B, elected faculty members should be broadly representative of the University, with at least one representative from Health Sciences, at least one representative from Career-line (lecturer) faculty, at least one representative of Tenure-line faculty, and one faculty member with experience as an academic unit administrator with responsibilities for reviews of faculty members. As with Senate standing committees generally, the terms are staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, the Senate President or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member, and elections of faculty members and appointment and confirmation of Committee officers proceed as described in [Parts II-D-3 and III-E], with the exception that nominations for members to stand for election to this Committee (except nominations made from the floor during a meeting of the Senate) shall originate from the Senate Executive Committee and the Personnel and Elections Committee.

Three faculty members are appointed to the Committee as full voting members, including the Associate Dean for General Education (or designee), a faculty representative of the Undergraduate Council (a Council member appointed to the Committee annually by the chairperson of the Undergraduate Council), and a faculty representative of the Graduate Council (a Council member appointed annually to the Committee by the chairperson of the Graduate Council).

Student members. The four student representatives will include the ASUU Academic Affairs Director (or designee), the ASUU Senate chairperson (or designee), and two Student Advisory Committee (SAC) representatives appointed by the ASUU Academic Affairs Director, including one graduate student and one undergraduate student. Students will have annual terms of service, but may be reappointed.

Non-voting ex officio members. Holders of the following positions (or equivalents) shall also be ex officio non-voting members: Director of the University unit responsible for the administration and analysis of student course feedback, and Student Course Feedback Program Manager.

Committee Officers Appointment and Confirmation. The Committee officers, selected from the elected faculty members of the Committee, shall be appointed and confirmed as follows. There shall be a Committee chairperson and a vice-chairperson, the vice-chairperson preferably succeeding the chairperson in the year following service as vice-chairperson. The Academic Senate President, in consultation with the Director of the University unit responsible for the administration and analysis of student course feedback, annually appoints the Committee officers with ratification by the Senate Executive Committee, and then subject to confirmation of the Senate-elected Committee's voting membership. The chairperson may at any time appoint a member or other person to act as secretary for the Committee.

ii. Functions.

The Committee's primary functions shall be as more fully described in Policy 6-100-III-N, Course Assessment and Feedback (course evaluations), including evaluation and provision of input and oversight on the development and revision of course feedback instrument(s), report form(s), and procedure(s), which shall be presented to the Academic Senate for approval. Full evaluation of student course feedback forms, report forms, and administration procedures will be reported to the Academic Senate every four years. The Committee shall confer with the Senate Faculty Review Standards Committee and relevant administrators regarding the use of course feedback results in conjunction with reviews of teaching performance of faculty members and non-faculty instructional personnel (Policies 6-303 and 6-310). The Committee shall report to the Senate at least annually regarding its activities.

j. Senate Advisory Committee on Information Technology.

The Senate Advisory Committee on Information Technology ("SACIT") is hereby established as a standing committee of the Academic Senate. The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here.

- i. Membership and officers. The membership of the Committee with full voting rights consists of twelve Tenure-line or Career-line faculty members, who meet the qualifications for election to the Academic Senate (but need not be members of the Senate), and two students.

For the faculty members: ordinarily at least three shall be Tenure-line and at least three Career-line; they shall represent the University faculty as a whole and not any particular college or equivalent and ordinarily not more than three may be from the same college or equivalent; the terms are three years, and there is no limit on serving multiple consecutive terms. As with Senate standing committees generally, the terms are staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, the Senate President or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member, and elections of faculty members and appointment and confirmation of Committee officers proceed as described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E], with the exception that nominations for members to stand for election to this Committee shall originate from the Senate Executive Committee and the Personnel and Elections Committee, which will consider recommendations from relevant administrators and past participants in the work of this Committee. Selection of faculty members should be guided by the following principles, consistent with the functions of the Committee:

- Awareness of the roles of information technology in an academic setting
- Some familiarity with trends in information technology relevant to academic activities,
- Representation of the very diverse academic sectors of the University,
- Interest in assuring that information technology resources are deployed so as to best support the University's multiple academic missions, and interest in maintaining effective relationships among the University's academic users of information technology and the pertinent administrators and staff,

- Given the importance of continuity of membership, willingness to be considered for nomination for consecutive terms.

The two student members shall be selected by ASUU, shall serve one-year terms, and preferably will include one undergraduate and one graduate student. The University's Chief Information Officer (or equivalent), or designee, will serve permanently as a non-voting ex-officio member of the Committee. The Committee may consult with anyone involved in University information technology as necessary for the performance of its responsibilities, but none of these individuals will be members of the Committee. As with other standing Senate committees, this Committee's officer(s) shall be selected annually from the elected faculty members of this Committee, appointed by the Senate President, ratified by the Senate Executive Committee, and confirmed by this Committee's voting membership, and there are no restrictions on reappointment to multiple consecutive annual terms.

- ii. Functions. The primary role of the Committee is to ensure ongoing robust communication among representatives of the University's academic users of information technology (especially faculty and students), and administrators responsible for planning for, acquiring and deploying information technology resources. Such administrators shall regularly inform and consult with the Committee regarding information technology resources. The Committee should regularly consult with information technology user constituencies and convey input to relevant administrators.

If for any particular matter being considered by the Committee any individual member has a potential conflict of interest which might reasonably be considered to significantly affect that member's judgment (e.g., affecting that member's home unit far more greatly than other University units generally), the member should disclose that concern and if judged appropriate by the majority of other voting members should refrain from any voting on that matter.

In light of typically rapid changes in information technology, and possible occasional changes in the University's overall administrative governance structure relevant to information technology, the administrative positions and other University committees which this Committee will interact with might change frequently. It is intended that this Committee serve as a permanent fixture and constant participant within the governance structure.

Proposals for University Regulations significantly affecting academic uses of information technology should be developed within or otherwise considered by the Committee prior to being presented to the Senate.

The Committee shall report on its activities and present its recommendations, as needed and at least annually, to the Senate.

k. Senate Faculty Review Standards Committee.

The Senate Faculty Review Standards Committee ("SFRSC") is hereby established as a standing committee of the Academic Senate. The provisions described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E] of this Policy as generally applicable for standing committees of the Senate apply for this Committee, except as otherwise specifically described here.

[User note: this committee was formerly known as the University RPT Standards Committee--URPTSC (2004-2014), and earlier as the University RPT Standards and Appeals Committee--URPTSAC (pre-2004)]

i. Membership and officers.

- A. The membership of the Committee with full voting rights consists of [twenty four] faculty members, including eighteen Tenured (one from each of the [seventeen] academic colleges, and the University Libraries), and six Career-line (selected as described below). The terms of all voting members are four years (rather than the typical three), and any individual who has served two consecutive terms will not be eligible for nomination for another term until an interval of one year has passed following the completion of the second term. As with Senate standing committees generally, the terms are staggered so that an approximately equal number are elected each year, the Senate President or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member, and elections of faculty members and appointment and confirmation of Committee officers proceed as described in [Parts III-D-3 and III-E], except that the Senate Executive Committee shall approve nominations of the Career-line faculty members (as described below), and the single chairperson (or at least one of two co-chairpersons if leadership is so structured in a given year) shall be a Tenured member.

- B. For the Career-line members: the allocation of members for a given period should be made as will best achieve appropriate representation of University areas with significant numbers of such faculty and provide perspectives from the three Career-line sub- categories (Clinical, Lecturer, Research), and consistent with the anticipated work of the Committee, generally including among the total of six at least two from the academic colleges within health sciences, and at least two from the other areas of Senate representation (other academic colleges, the libraries, and the qualified interdisciplinary teaching programs). The nominations (other than nominations made from the floor at a Senate meeting), after having been prepared by the Personnel and Elections Committee shall be approved by the Senate Executive Committee prior to the election within the Senate.
- C. As recommended by the Committee and with the approval of the Senate Executive Committee, for any given year the members may be organized into subcommittees, e.g., for purposes of those work projects related to Tenure-line faculty and those related to Career- line faculty and non-faculty academic personnel.
- D. The Associate Vice President for Faculty, or designee, shall also be a non-voting ex officio member of the Committee and any subcommittees.

ii. Functions and procedures.

The Committee generally advises the Senate and University administration regarding Regulations and practices for regular periodic reviews of members of the University faculty (and also non-faculty instructional personnel teaching credit-bearing courses, see Policy 6- 310). And, acting on behalf of the Senate with authority hereby delegated to it, the Committee has the following specific functions for review and approval of the Statements describing and governing the University's systems for reviews of individual faculty (and such non- faculty instructional personnel).

A. RPT Statements. The Committee shall develop and implement procedures with which it will review and approve the Statements of Retention, Promotion and Tenure criteria, standards, and procedures applicable for members of the Tenure-line faculty of each academic unit as required by University Policy 6-303. Such reviews should be conducted with due concern to the unique characteristics or requirements of the discipline and with the objective of improving the stature of the University by ensuring that such criteria and standards are consistent with the University's commitment to academic excellence. Such reviews will be conducted in conjunction with the faculty and administrators of the academic unit being reviewed. The Statement of any academic unit may be reviewed at the initiative of the Committee or on a regular schedule which the Committee may establish in consultation with the cognizant senior vice president. Requests for reviews other than on such regular schedule may be made to the Committee by the cognizant senior vice president, the University Promotion and Tenure Advisory Committee (see Policy 6-304-III-E), or the Graduate Council (pursuant to regular evaluations of academic units per [Policy 6-001]), as well as by deans, department chairpersons, or individual Tenure-line faculty members. The Committee shall use its judgment and discretion in formulating responses to such requests. The Committee shall annually report on its reviews to the Senate and to the University Promotion and Tenure Advisory Committee.

- B. Tenured Faculty Review Statements. The Committee shall review and approve the Statement of Tenured Faculty Review procedures applicable for the Tenured faculty members of each academic unit as required by [Policy 6-321].
- C. Statements for Review of Career-Line and Adjunct Faculty, and Non-Faculty Instructional Personnel. The Committee shall review and approve the Statement of Review, Reappointment and Promotion Criteria, Standards, and Procedures applicable for members of the Career-line faculty, Adjunct faculty and non-faculty instructional personnel of each academic unit as required by [Policy 6-310].
- D. The Committee is also an appropriate forum for reviewing any proposed changes to University Regulations relating to the above specific functions of the Committee, including any with respect to retention, promotion, or tenure.

2. Other Committees Established by the Senate.

a. Other Standing Committees.

The Senate may by ordinary vote create a new standing committee of the Senate, provided that within one year of such establishment by vote, the committee shall be fully established by an approved revision of this Policy incorporating a description of the membership structure and functions of such additional standing committee.

b. Special Committees.

The Senate shall have the power to provide for the appointment or election of such special committees as in its discretion may be needed to serve the best interests of the University. (As described above, the Senate Executive Committee has the power to recommend to the Senate the establishment of such a special committee). The membership structure and terms, functions, and period of existence for each such special committee shall be as described in the proposal for establishment of the committee as approved by the Senate, and in the special charge issued to the committee.

c. Ad Hoc Committee to Review Structure of Senate.

The Senate may by secret ballot elect an ad hoc committee to review the structure and functions of the Senate.

Also, if appropriate based on current circumstances, as annually determined by the Academic Senate President and ratified by the Senate Executive Committee, there shall be either a co-chairperson or a vice-chairperson. - e. Access to Records. All standing and special Senate committees established pursuant to this Policy 6-002 shall have full access to the minutes of the Board of Trustees and to the books of the secretary of the Trustees. See [Policy 2-002, and the Bylaws of the Board of Trustees].
- f. Committee General Charters, Special Charges, and Reports.

For each standing committee of the Senate, a permanent general charter, updated consistent with the provisions of this Policy and any other governing Regulation, shall be approved by the Senate Executive Committee, kept in the Academic Senate Office, and made available to all committee members. In addition, any special task assigned to a standing committee during a particular time period shall be described in a special charge delivered to the committee's officer(s).
 - ii. Each standing committee of the Senate shall report to the Senate, and unless otherwise provided shall at least annually submit for the information of the Senate a report of recent activities (except that reports of a confidential nature, including activities of the Consolidated Hearing Committee as described in Policy 6-011, shall be directed only to the Senate Executive Committee).

E. Elections Within the Senate.

1. Scope. Elections within the Senate include election of the President/President-elect of the Senate, election of faculty members for all standing committees of the Senate, and such other elections as may be required for any special Senate committee or other University committee. All elections shall be supervised and conducted by the Senate Personnel and Elections Committee, and shall be conducted during a regular or special meeting of the Senate, except that any particular election (other than of the Senate President/President-elect) may be conducted through electronic means (electronic mail or a secure internet site or similar means) if so recommended by the Personnel and Elections Committee and approved by the Senate Executive Committee.
2. Nominations.

- a. The Senate Personnel and Elections Committee shall prepare nomination slates for all elections conducted within the Senate. For each elected standing committee of the Senate or other Senate-elected committee, the Personnel and Elections Committee shall prepare a slate containing a number of nominees equal to or greater than one and one-half times the number of positions to be filled. After presenting the slate to the Senate, the Chairperson of the Personnel and Elections Committee shall open the slate to additional nominations from the floor.
 - b. If the Senate is requested to make nominations or recommendations for a committee to be appointed by the University administration, the Personnel and Elections Committee shall prepare the list of nominees.
3. Balloting Procedures.

Only the names of those nominees receiving the same number of points for the contested position(s) in the first balloting round shall be included on any runoff ballot. Preferential balloting procedures shall be followed in the runoff balloting round.

4. Vacancies.

Elections shall be conducted by the preferential balloting Procedure.
- b. Individuals filling vacancies shall assume office immediately after their designation, and shall serve during the incumbent's absence or for the remainder of the incumbent's term.

All actions or recommendations of the Senate shall be by majority vote of the elected members (and alternates) present unless otherwise required herein. Voting shall be by secret ballot if requested by three elected members of the Senate.
- c. When there are no Debate items scheduled for the agenda of a regular meeting of the Senate, the Executive Committee of the Senate is authorized to cancel that meeting and to carry forward all other items on the agenda, except resignations and appointments, to the next regular meeting of the Senate.
- d. Senate time should be scheduled on a regular basis for discussions with the University President and/or other officers of the University on such subjects as budget, new programs, administrative problems, etc. During these discussions it should be the prerogative of any member of the Senate to ask of the administration any question relevant to the University.
