University Policy 1-012: University Non-discrimination Policy. Revision 2. Effective date February 14, 2017

I. Purpose and Scope

The University of Utah is committed to providing and fostering an environment that is safe and free from prohibited discrimination.

This is the primary Policy that informs the University community of the University’s commitment to preventing prohibited discrimination and fostering an academic, employment, and health care environment that is free from prohibited discrimination, including harassment and Sexual Misconduct.

This policy applies to all academic and administrative units of the University, and to all members of the University community, including faculty, staff, students, patients, visitors, and participants in University programs or activities. The application of this Policy’s associated regulations to individuals who are also students, such as teaching assistants, research assistants, Medical Housestaff, or other University staff members who are also enrolled as students in a graduate education or other degree program, will be determined by the respective roles of those involved in any alleged violation.

[User note: This Policy was formerly titled as Interim Policy 1-012 Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking Prevention and Response. As of February 2017 it was re-titled and significantly revised, along with enactment of a set of associated Rules and procedures. Some contents of the revised Policy and the new Rules and Procedures formerly appeared in Policy 5-210 Discrimination and Sexual Harassment and Response. As of February 2017 this Policy and the set of associated Rules and Procedures replaces Policy 5-210 as the primary University Policy applicable to complaints of discrimination.]

II. Definitions
For purposes of this Policy, the definitions of prohibited discrimination and other words and phrases used in this Policy and its associated Rules and Procedure are provided in Rule R1-012.

III. Non-discrimination Policy

The University of Utah does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, or protected veteran’s status ("protected class"), in employment, treatment, admission, access to educational programs and activities, or other University benefits or services. Additionally, the University provides reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to qualified persons with disabilities.

Retaliation against individuals for engaging in protected activities, such as filing a discrimination complaint or participating in a discrimination complaint process, is prohibited.

Inquiries regarding the University’s Non-discrimination Policy and requests for accommodations may be referred to:
