I. Purpose and Scope

A. Purpose.

The University of Utah (“University”) is committed to providing and fostering an environment that is safe and free from prohibited Discrimination. This is the primary Policy that informs the University community of the University’s commitment to preventing prohibited Discrimination and fostering an academic, employment, and healthcare environment that is free from prohibited Discrimination, including Harassment and Sexual Misconduct.

B. Scope.

This Policy applies to all academic and administrative units of the University, and to all members of the University community, including faculty, staff, students, patients, visitors, and participants in University programs or activities. This Policy is intended to be implemented through a set of associated University Regulations (Rules, Procedures, and Guidance). The application of this Policy’s associated Regulations to staff who are also students, such as teaching assistants, research assistants, Medical Housestaff, or other University staff members who are also enrolled as students in a graduate education or other degree program, will be determined by the respective roles of those involved in any alleged violation.

II. Definitions

For purposes of this Policy, the definitions of prohibited Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and other words and phrases used in this Policy and its associated Regulations are provided in Rule 1-012.

III. Policy

A. Non-discrimination Policy

1. The University of Utah does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, genetic information, or protected veteran status (“protected class”), in employment, treatment, admission, access to educational programs and activities, or other University benefits or services. Additionally, the University provides reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to qualified persons with disabilities.

2. Retaliation against individuals for engaging in activities protected under this Policy is prohibited. No person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege protected under this Policy or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation proceeding or hearing under this Policy or its associated Regulations.
3. If any other University Regulation is inconsistent with the provisions herein, this Policy and its associated Rules shall govern.

4. Inquiries regarding the University’s Non-discrimination Policy and associated Regulations, and requests for accommodations may be referred to:
