

Guidelines and Committee Definitions

Article I. Name of the Organization and Defined Terms

The name of this organization shall be the University of Utah Staff Council (hereafter “Staff Council” “Council” or “UUSC”).

- A. Area –UUSC defines ‘area’ as the classification category of a staff member’s district of employment at the University. Area classifications are used to ensure UUSC membership is comprised of equitable representation of the staff experience across the University. Areas of representation on UUSC include: Health Sciences, Academic Affairs, Administration, and Student Affairs/Services. It may be helpful to note that the University uses the term ‘area’ and ‘district’ simultaneously.
- B. Executive Board – The UUSC Executive Board is composed of the UUSC President, Past-President, President Elect and Treasurer.
- C. Executive Committee – The UUSC Executive Committee includes all members of the UUSC Executive Board and Staff Council Committee Chairs.
- D. Staff: Staff or Staff Member – An employee employed and paid through the University of Utah in a position which is not included in the category of Faculty, Non-Faculty Academic Employee or Administrative Officer, as defined by University Policy 5-001.
- E. Staff Council Member: individual University of Utah Staff member selected to serve a term on UUSC. Each Staff Council Member represents a particular area of the University.
- F. Term – Members on Staff Council will serve a three (3) year term with a maximum of two (2) terms. Terms may be served consecutively or not. Term(s) may be extended by one (1) year at the discretion of the Executive Board.
 - 1. A Council “term” is defined as July 1st through June 30th

Article II. Function and Mission

Function - The University of Utah Staff Council (UUSC) is established to provide a forum for University Staff Members to express their concerns, recommendations, and advice regarding wages and salaries, benefits, working conditions, and other matters which may affect them in their capacity as Staff to the University Administration and the Board of Trustees. UUSC shall schedule and conduct its meetings and activities in a manner that will allow free debate and discussion of issues and encourage input by all Staff. UUSC shall determine which matters shall be brought to the attention of the University administration and Board of Trustees through this process. (U Policy 5-003).

Mission - UUSC will:

- A. Provide a means for all Staff to communicate their concerns and make suggestions regarding matters of general concern.
- B. Represent Staff on matters of significant concern by bringing issues to University Administration and the Board of Trustees.
- C. Provide advancement and enrichment opportunities for Staff.
- D. Seek additional advantages and opportunities for Staff through partnerships from inside and outside the University.
- E. Distribute information to Staff concerning plans, programs and issues affecting Staff and the University as a whole.
- F. Consider, study, and make recommendations to the University President, Board of Trustees, and other University officials on behalf of all Staff, regarding procedures, policies, and other general issues and concerns.
- G. Promote equity, diversity, and inclusion across campus and throughout the community.

Article III. Membership

- A. Makeup of Staff Council
 1. Staff Council shall consist of 26 members or shall be proportionally representative of the number of staff employed by the University if not equal to 26 members and appointed directly from representative areas of the University as explained in the "Areas Represented on Staff Council" below.
 2. Each of these members must work in the area they represent while serving on the Staff Council.
 3. Members on Staff Council will serve a three (3) year term with a maximum of two (2) terms. Terms may be served consecutively or not. Term(s) may be extended by one (1) year at the discretion of the Executive Board.
 4. A Council "term" is defined as July 1st through June 30th.
 5. In addition to the 26 Council members, Staff Council shall welcome as ex officio members as required by University Policy 5-003:
 - i. Main Campus and Hospital & Clinics Chief Human Resources Officers (or their designees);
 - ii. Executive Director (or their designee) from the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action;
 - iii. University Marketing & Communications; and
 - iv. Central Development.
- B. Areas Represented on Staff Council
 1. Membership should be based on the following recommendation, reviewed annually as demographics and populations shift:
 - i. Health Sciences, Eleven (11) representatives,
 - ii. Academic Affairs, Six (6) representatives,

- iii. Administration, Six (6) representatives,
 - iv. Student Affairs/Services, Three (3) representatives,
 - v. Ex-officio Members, Five (5) representatives or more from University Human Resources (2), Office of Equal Opportunity & Affirmative Action, University Marketing & Communications, and Central Development. Ex-officio Members hold a non-voting role.
 - vi. Alternates, At least one alternate per area shall be appointed to serve a one-year term and may attend and volunteer on UUSC until three is an Early Vacancy. Alternates hold a non-voting role.
2. The number of members from each area is based on the area's percentage of the total numbers of University staff. This representation breakdown should be reviewed annually so the numbers can be adjusted to correctly reflect population changes. The current year roster will identify the actual numbers per area.
- C. Eligibility of University Employees for Staff Council
1. Staff must meet the following criteria before applying to join UUSC, and will be vetted by University HR prior to joining:
 - i. Benefits eligible (.75 FTE or greater);
 - ii. Completed successfully the probationary period of employment prior to the beginning of their term of service (July 1 of each year);
 - iii. At least two years of employment at the University;
 - iv. Submitted a completed "Supervisor's Notification" form; and,
 - v. Completed the "Staff Council Membership Agreement" form.
- D. Selection of Council Members
1. Selections Committee will:
 - i. Notify all staff members when applications are available;
 - ii. Receive and review all applications to UUSC;
 - iii. Vote and select new Staff members;
 - iv. Vet all selected Staff members through Human Resources office in accordance with Section C of these Bylaws;
 - v. Notify all new or rejected applicants; and,
 - vi. Periodically review application process and the application itself to promote fairness, equity, diversity, and inclusion (access).
 2. The selections process begins when a staff member completes the necessary forms by the application deadline.
 3. Process. Applications are due no later than May 15 in the year of appointment to UUSC.
 - i. All applications will be collected and assessed for eligibility.
 - ii. The Selections Committee will vote for all open seats on UUSC and also for a minimum of one alternate from each of the four (4) areas of the University no later than June 15 and submit nominees to the respective Human Resource Office.
 - iii. In the event there are insufficient applicants from any of the given areas, the chair of the Selections Committee and UUSC President-elect will approach the Vice President of that area and request nominees. UUSC may provide nominations to the Vice President at their discretion.

- iv. The main campus and hospital Chief Human Resource Officers or their designees will approve the selections, send joint letters of appointment to the selected individuals, and send a copy to each respective Vice President and the Staff member's immediate supervisor(s).
- v. Letters will be sent no later than June 15 of the year of selection to UUSC. New members are expected to attend the first UUSC meeting after their appointment.

E. Mid Term Vacancies

1. Alternates. In the event that a mid-term vacancy arises, an Alternate from the same area shall be appointed to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the current term and up to a term of three years from the Alternate's initial appointment. After an Alternate's one-year term has expired, the Alternate may apply for a full member seat on UUSC in accordance with these bylaws if the Alternate has not been appointed to fill a mid-term vacancy pursuant to this Section.
2. The Selections Committee will provide the UUSC President with the Alternate List. The UUSC President shall identify an Alternate from the same area for appointment to fill the Mid Term Vacancy.
3. In the event there are insufficient Alternates from any of the given areas, the chair of the Selections Committee and UUSC President-elect will approach the Vice President of that area and request nominees. UUSC members may submit nominations to the Vice President at their discretion.
4. A letter of appointment will be sent to the selected individual, the staff member's immediate supervisor, and a copy to the respective Vice President.
5. The new Staff Council member's Term will begin immediately as a full member. If the new Staff Council member was an Alternate, that member's Term will begin on July 1 of the year of appointment as an Alternate. The new Staff Council member's Term shall be three (3) years from July 1 of the year of appointment as an Alternate but may be extended by one (1) year at the discretion of the Executive Board to allow participation in leadership opportunities, or to balance number of members rolling on/off council, so long as the new Staff Council member is in agreement.

F. Removal of Council Members

1. Purpose. Staff Council members are held to a high standard as they have been selected to represent all staff members, and as such, must take that responsibility seriously by acting professionally and serving with commitment to their role on Staff Council. Members have the responsibility of acting in the best interests of staff members and the University as a whole. Removal of a Staff Council member shall only occur in accordance with this Section.
2. Ineligibility. Staff Council members who transfer positions outside of the area they represent will no longer be eligible to serve on Staff Council in the area they represent but are eligible to apply to represent the area into which the Staff Council member transferred. The President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairs of the Committees are exempt from removal due to position transfer, as they do not represent specific areas of the University.
3. Reasons for removing Staff Council Members
 - i. A member of Staff Council may be removed for the following reasons:

- a. For unacceptable personal conduct or behavior that materially disrupts the workings of Staff Council as a whole or its committees.
 - b. For excessive absences, defined as three (3) or more excused and/or unexcused absences from Staff Council obligations during a Council year. Obligations are defined as a meeting or event member is required to attend or to which they have committed.
 - c. For ineligibility as described in this Section.
4. Process for Removal of Council Members. Any Staff Council member may call for the removal of a member in good faith. The matter will be brought before the Executive Board in writing for deliberation and voting.
- i. To remove a member of Staff Council the following steps must be taken:
 - a. The call for removal and accompanying evidence must be submitted in writing to the Secretary at least fourteen (14) days prior to an Executive Board meeting.
 - b. The Secretary shall provide written notice to the member whose removal has been requested and the basis for the call for removal within two (2) business days of receipt of the call for removal. The member shall be afforded the opportunity to review all evidence submitted in support of their removal and to prepare and submit to the Secretary any evidence in defense of the call for removal. The member shall submit such evidence no later than two (2) business days in advance of the Executive Committee meeting.
 - c. The Secretary shall circulate the call for removal and all evidence in support and defense of removal to the Executive Committee at least one (1) business day prior to the Executive Committee meeting.
 - d. The Executive Committee will vote on whether there is sufficient evidence to remove the member. A two-thirds majority will carry the motion.
 - e. The President of Staff Council may table the vote for removal of a member until the next Executive Committee meeting.

Article IV. Organization

- A. UUSC is organizationally housed under the University's Chief Human Resources Officer.
- B. Staff Council shall be defined and led by its Executive Board officers and will include smaller manageable specialized committees to best serve the needs and achieve the goals of UUSC and the University.
- C. The Executive Officers
 1. Executive Board: The Executive Board is comprised of the President, the President-Elect, the Immediate Past-President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer.
 - i. President. The President is responsible for promoting the Mission of UUSC and proposing the general direction of UUSC during the President's tenure. The President supports the goals of UUSC committees and committee chairs. The President fulfills other duties as outlined in these Bylaws.
 - ii. President-Elect. The President-Elect assists the President on any matters deemed necessary by the President and works to learn the role of President in - order to adequately perform the position the following year. The President-Elect fulfills other duties as outlined in these Bylaws.

- iii. Immediate Past-President. The Immediate Past-President supports the current president and Executive Board. Duties include sharing institutional knowledge of UUSC and fulfilling any other role as designated by the President. The Immediate Past-President fulfills other duties as outlined in these Bylaws.
 - iv. Secretary. The Secretary is the record keeper for UUSC. Duties include creating and sending calendar appointments for monthly UUSC board meetings and any meetings of the Executive Board and the Executive Committee. The Secretary must take and keep a record of attendance at all meetings of UUSC. The Secretary must keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the general UUSC, Executive Board, and Executive Committees meetings. The Secretary fulfills other duties as outlined in these Bylaws.

 - i. Communications Committee. The Communication Committee is responsible for managing UUSC social media, website, newsletter, and any other method for transmitting information on behalf of UUSC to the University as a whole.
 - ii. Development Committee. The Development Committee is responsible for furthering the advancement of Staff through fundraising activities and to promote opportunity for University staff as a whole.
 - iii. Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion Committee. The Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion Committee is responsible for assessing and evaluating EDI practices within UUSC and supporting University staff affinity groups, and supporting EDI initiatives at the University.
 - iv. Events Committee: The Events Committee is responsible for organizing staff events.
 - v. Legislative Committee: The Legislative Committee represents staff to the Vice President for Government Relations on matters related to the State Legislature and University of Utah.
 - vi. Selections Committee: The Selections Committee fills open member positions on UUSC, maintains the list of alternates if a vacancy becomes available during the year, and determines the selections of staff scholarships.
 - vii. Ad-hoc Committee(s): Any working group necessary to fulfill the function and vision of the Council (e.g. Paid Parental Leave committee). Ad-hoc Committees may include non-Members.
 3. Committees may be created, dissolved, or combined as needed with the approval of the general UUSC.

Article V. Executive Board

- A. Executive Board members are responsible for the general direction and strategies for success of UUSC and will work to ensure that strategic goals are met. They shall serve the entire council and therefore shall:
 1. Fulfill directives adopted by UUSC.

2. Ensure adherence to UUSC Bylaws.
3. Perform all responsibilities subject to the oversight of UUSC as a whole.
4. Participate as a voting member of the Executive Board.
5. Annually review these Bylaws, including membership percentages, and update as needed.
6. Meet regularly to discuss the strategic direction of UUSC.
7. Make decisions, vote on issues, and/or represent the entire UUSC in the event that decisions must be made before the next regular general meeting, and before a special meeting of UUSC can be called. Decisions shall be made based on a majority vote of the Executive Board members present, provided the President or President-elect is among the members present.

Executive Board meetings may go behind closed doors when voted unanimously by the Board. Minutes will not be recorded for that period of time.

B. Officer Eligibility and Terms of Service

1. Eligibility to serve as an Executive Officer (President, President-elect, Secretary or Treasurer) shall be limited to members who have served on the Staff Council for at least one year, absent exigent circumstances.
2. The term of office for President is: one year as President-elect, followed by one year as President, and a final year as the Immediate Past-President.
3. If the President-elect takes office beginning in the third year of service, a term extension shall be granted to allow fulfillment of the presidential year.
4. The term of office for both Treasurer and Secretary is one year, a second year is allowable after a vote of approval by UUSC.

C. Election of Officers

1. Nominations shall be due, one (1) week prior to the general UUSC meeting in March. Nominations may be made electronically or by phone to the President-elect. This deadline may be waived or amended by the Executive Board.
2. UUSC members shall contact those individuals they wish to nominate, prior to submitting nominations, to confirm the nominees' willingness to serve.
3. All nominees shall confirm to the President-elect their willingness to serve or shall decline the nomination.
4. The President-elect shall announce the nominees at the March UUSC meeting. The list of nominees will be included in the minutes.
5. The President-elect shall conduct the election at the April meeting as follows:
 - i. A nomination from the floor may be accepted, with the approval of the person being nominated.
 - ii. A short speech may be given by each nominee prior to voting, but is not required.
 - iii. Voting shall be conducted by secret ballot.
 - iv. Officers shall be elected by a majority vote of UUSC members present. The President does not participate in this voting. Designees or alternates do not participate in this voting.
 - v. The President-elect will gather and tabulate the ballots and announce the results of the election.
 - vi. In the event of a tie vote, the President-elect shall not announce any of the results, but privately notifies the President, who will cast the tie-breaking vote.

The results will then be announced. This is the only circumstance under which the President may cast a vote for a UUSC officer.

6. Officers shall begin their terms of office on July 1 following their election.

D. Vacancy of Officers

1. A vacancy in the office of UUSC President shall be filled by the President-elect for the unexpired term. The President-elect shall have the option of serving only the unexpired term of their predecessor.
2. A vacancy in the office of President-elect, Secretary, and/or Treasurer shall be filled through a specially held election. The vacancy shall be announced and nomination forms distributed at the first regular UUSC meeting following the announcement of the vacancy. Nominations will be due two (2) weeks after the announcement. An election at the next monthly meeting will follow the procedure outlined above in Article V, Section C (Election of Officers).
3. If both the President and President-elect positions are vacant, an interim President will be appointed by the main campus Chief Human Resources Officer until a suitable replacement can be elected.
