III. Definitions

A. Participant

1. As used in this policy, participant means a person, other than a student or employee, who is participating or attempting to participate in, or is receiving or is an applicant for the benefits of, any program, service or activity conducted under the sponsorship or auspices of the university, including but not limited to applicants for admission, applicants for employment, patients, clients, spectators, visitors, and volunteers.

B. Relevant employee definitions are defined in Policy 5-001.

IV. Policy

A. Consensual Relationships

1. When a faculty member has any direct professional responsibility for evaluating a student's academic performance or professional future, such as assigning grades, evaluating clinical performance, serving on the student's graduate committee or awarding scholarships, a romantic or sexual relationship between the faculty member and student, even a mutually consenting one, will be considered a violation of this policy and to be a cause for discipline unless the situation is remedied by reassigning performance evaluations, reporting responsibilities, or grade assignments to other qualified individuals, and by notifying the faculty member's department head. Faculty who engage in such consensual relationships and do not take steps to resolve the conflict of interest may be subject to the filing of a complaint .
2. Additionally, when a supervisor has any direct supervisory authority over an employee and is at the same time involved in a sexual or romantic relationship with that employee, unless the corrective measures noted above are taken, the supervisor is in violation of this policy and may be disciplined.
