III. Policy

A. Identification cards will be provided to all full and part-time faculty members; staff members holding benefits eligible positions; students; and limited categories of other persons affiliated with the university as approved by the president. The I.D. Bureau is responsible for processing and distributing identification cards. Initial cards will be provided without charge. A fee will be charged to defray the cost of replacement of lost, stolen, or confiscated cards.

- B. Identification cards are to be used primarily to assist authorized card holders in identifying themselves for the purpose of obtaining the following privileges, subject to applicable rules and regulations:
 - 1. Cashing checks on campus.
 - 2. Library use.
 - 3. Bookstore discounts.
 - 4. Use of campus recreation facilities.
 - 5. Athletic, lecture, concerts, and theatre admissions and/or ticket discounts.
 - C. The privileges associated with an identification card are intended solely for the personal benefit of the card holder and are available only when the card is presented by the card holder in person, or by a representative authorized in writing to do so. An identification card that is presented by a person other than the card holder or such representative for the purpose of receiving any such privilege improperly may be confiscated.
 - D. Identification cards have been designed to serve faculty, students, and staff members for the duration of their association with the University; cards will be validated on an academic year basis by the I. D. Bureau.
 - E. All faculty, and staff identification cards shall be turned in upon termination of personnel to an individual's department chairperson or immediate supervisor, or to the office of human resources at the time of exit interview.
 - F. Faculty and staff retiring from the university after five years of continuous service immediately prior to retirement, will be entitled to an identification card with a lifetime validation. Cards will be provided without charge at the time of retirement. The office of human resources will authorize the issuance of these cards.
